

Einstein's First of the Year Family Library Night
Invites you to

The Library Café and Book Tasting

Monday, September 26th from 6:00-7:30pm

What is a book tasting?

A book tasting is a chance to expose family members of all ages to different kinds of books from different genres, hoping to get everyone engaged and excited about reading.

You are invited to come ...

Sample a selection of books from a menu offering eight different genre tastes

Discover what you like or don't like about your tastings

Learn how to decide if a book is the kind of book you'd want to read in the future

Bonus: come learn about what will be happening in the library this year and what other resources you and children have available for learning

Come...taste...enjoy...and learn as a family!
